

Quality management of processed food products by SHGs in Jorhat, Assam: Quality management of processed food products

This book is a part of the findings of MBA (Agribusiness) programme of Ms Priyanga at Assam Agricultural University, Jorhat, Assam. The most important quality factor of processed food is safety and reliability followed by deliciousness and price. Large food industry is already in for adoption of HACCP, ISO-9000, GMP, etc. to become competitive in the global food market. However, for domestic markets, food quality is regulated through compulsory legislations and voluntary standards. Food processing is emerging as a major industry in the State of Assam and has the potential of generating employment and raising farm incomes. Self-Help Groups (SHGs) are coming up in a big way with various processed food products. The study encompass the documentation of various processed food products prepared by the women SHGs in Jorhat District of Assam and about 47 processed food products have been documented. A number of problems faced by the SHGs were identified which act as hurdle in maintaining the proper quality of the products. It can be concluded that providing requisite training and making them aware of the marketing techniques these problems can be overcome.

Located on a 160 x 25 site near the south entrance of Newburyports Clipper City Rail Trail, the Alchemical Garden is a richly layered evolving art and horticulture experience that is accessible on many different levels to the public. Alchemical Garden Plot plan Alchemical Garden is designed to become a model for a sustainable, interactive public garden through the use of symbiotic, low maintenance plantings and recycled materials. The ancient discipline of Alchemy marries art and science and is famously known for transforming a common material into gold. The Alchemical Garden will lead the community to transform on a number of levels : Alchemical Garden with Spring Wheat "Crop Circles" June, 2011 BUILD COMMUNITY: The Garden creates a gathering space for individuals to form a more intimate relationship with their community. The space is designed with visual features and seating areas to compel passers-by to pause, reflect, and have a multi-sensory interactive experience (sight, smell, touch, taste, smell) with the garden and the community.
