

The Best of Blood n Thunder: Selections from the Award-Winning Journal of Adventure, Mystery and Melodrama in American Popular Culture

Since 2002, Blood n Thunder has explored American popular culture of the late 19th and early 20th centuries as manifested in the eras popular fiction dime novels, story papers, nickel weeklies, pulp magazines and such derivative storytelling vehicles as stage melodramas, motion pictures, and Old Time Radio programs. Blood n Thunders readers include not only veteran fans and collectors of such material, but also newly interested hobbyists born decades after the heyday of pulps and related narrative forms. This 340-page book collects the finest articles and reviews that appeared in Blood n Thunders long-out-of-print first ten issues over 125,000 words of history, biography, and commentary, impeccably researched and lovingly presented by devotees for devotees. Its a one-volume encyclopedia for aficionados of vintage adventure, mystery and melodrama.

Located on a 160 x 25 site near the south entrance of Newburyports Clipper City Rail Trail, the Alchemical Garden is a richly layered evolving art and horticulture experience that is accessible on many different levels to the public. Alchemical Garden Plot plan Alchemical Garden is designed to become a model for a sustainable, interactive public garden through the use of symbiotic, low maintenance plantings and recycled materials. The ancient discipline of Alchemy marries art and science and is famously known for transforming a common material into gold. The Alchemical Garden will lead the community to transform on a number of levels : Alchemical Garden with Spring Wheat "Crop Circles" June, 2011 BUILD COMMUNITY: The Garden creates a gathering space for individuals to form a more intimate relationship with their community. The space is designed with visual features and seating areas to compel passers-by to pause, reflect, and have a multi-sensory interactive experience (sight, smell, touch, taste, smell) with the garden and the community.
