

Thatchers Fortunes: The Life and Times of Mark Thatcher

In their probe into the activities of Margaret Thatchers son, the authors ponder just how he made his fortune, and reveal that Mrs. Thatcher was more involved in helping her son enrich himself while she was prime minister than was realized. From the Trade Paperback edition.

Trail Posted by on April 25, 2011 3 comments The Alchemical Garden site February 2010 GAL is turning a desolate field of weeds into a visually compelling garden that will educate and engage the community for years to come. Located on a 160 x 25 site near the south entrance of Newburyports Clipper City Rail Trail, the Alchemical Garden is a highly layered evolving art and horticulture experience that is accessible on many different levels to the public. The Alchemical Garden Plot plan Alchemical Garden is designed to become a model for a sustainable, interactive public garden through the use of symbiotic, low maintenance plantings and recycled materials. The ancient discipline of Alchemy marries art and science and is famously known for transforming a common material into gold. The Alchemical Garden will lead the community to transform on a number of levels : Alchemical Garden with Spring Wheat "Crop Circles" June, 2011 BUILD COMMUNITY: The Garden creates a gathering space for individuals to form a more intimate relationship with their community. The space is designed with visual features and seating areas to compel passers-by to pause, reflect, and have a multi-sensory interactive experience (sight, smell, touch, taste, smell) with the garden and the community. Read the rest of this entry Categories: Alchemical Garden, Articulture, Current
