How do you define morality? More importantly, is morality relevant in our secular, harried lives? Morality has little to do with religion or church or strict requirements for a so-called clean life; morality is the glue that binds us all as a unified community; it is the social grease that enhances our relationships with each other, and through those relationships permits us to live peacefully, to give of ourselves, and by extension, enhance our own lives.

Located on a 160 x 25 site near the south entrance of Newburyport's Clipper City Rail Trail, the Alchemical Garden is a richly layered evolving art and horticulture experience that is accessible on many different levels to the public. Alchemical Garden Plot plan Alchemical Garden is designed to become a model for a sustainable, interactive public garden through the use of symbiotic, low maintenance plantings and recycled materials. The ancient discipline of Alchemy marries art and science and is famously known for transforming a common material into gold. The Alchemical Garden will lead the community to transform on a number of levels : Alchemical Garden with Spring Wheat "Crop Circles" June, 2011 BUILD COMMUNITY: The Garden creates a gathering space for individuals to form a more intimate relationship with their community. The space is designed with visual features and seating areas to compel passers-by to pause, reflect, and have a multi-sensory interactive experience ( sight, smell, touch, taste, smell) with the garden and the community.
