

Debra Monk: Whatever is Necessary (Inside Act Book 1)

Ken Womble interviews Debra Monk about her career as a working actor and her inside acts, the important choices of her acting career. It is followed by two interviews with Debra Monks success team members: one with theater professional Jon Jory and a second with agent Steven Unger. Ken Womble then provides a final analysis of the keys to Debra Monks success as a working actor. This is chapter one from Ken Wombles Inside Act: How Ten Actors Made It And How You Can Too.

Trail Posted by erin on April 25, 2011 3 comments The Alchemical Garden site February 2010 GAL is turning a desolate field of weeds into a visually compelling garden that will educate and engage the community for years to come. Located on a 160 x 25 site near the south entrance of Newburyports Clipper City Rail Trail, the Alchemical Garden is a richly layered evolving art and horticulture experience that is accessible on many different levels to the public. Alchemical Garden Plot plan Alchemical Garden is designed to become a model for a sustainable, interactive public garden through the use of symbiotic, low maintenance plantings and recycled materials. The ancient discipline of Alchemy marries art and science and is famously known for transforming a common material into gold. The Alchemical Garden will lead the community to transform on a number of levels : Alchemical Garden with Spring Wheat "Crop Circles" June, 2011 BUILD COMMUNITY: The Garden creates a gathering space for individuals to form a more intimate relationship with their community. The space is designed with visual features and seating areas to compel passers-by to pause, reflect, and have a multi-sensory interactive experience (sight, smell, touch, taste, smell) with the garden and the community.
