

I want a coach!

In a competitive economic and business environment, companies are under constant pressure. To survive, their managers and executives must be as proactive, agile and flexible as possible whilst making quick decisions; as a result, more managers are calling on professional coaches. Coaches act as sounding boards; they offer different perspectives and can help to facilitate the decision-making process. Despite this greater openness towards coaching in recent years, there still exists a certain reluctance to take the step of hiring a coach. This is reflected in all kinds of prejudices and negative beliefs about coaching. In this book, Leen Lambrechts, Marleen Boen and Georges Anthoon aim to demystify coaching. In their flowing and accessible style, they shed light on what coaching really is, why there is a growing need for coaching and what exactly can be achieved through it. In addition, they clarify some misconceptions about coaching.

Located on a 160 x 25 site near the south entrance of Newburyports Clipper City Rail Trail, the Alchemical Garden is a richly layered evolving art and horticulture experience that is accessible on many different levels to the public. Alchemical Garden Plot plan Alchemical Garden is designed to become a model for a sustainable, interactive public garden through the use of symbiotic, low maintenance plantings and recycled materials. The ancient discipline of Alchemy marries art and science and is famously known for transforming a common material into gold. The Alchemical Garden will lead the community to transform on a number of levels : Alchemical Garden with Spring Wheat "Crop Circles" June, 2011 BUILD COMMUNITY: The Garden creates a gathering space for individuals to form a more intimate relationship with their community. The space is designed with visual features and seating areas to compel passers-by to pause, reflect, and have a multi-sensory interactive experience (sight, smell, touch, taste, smell) with the garden and the community.
