

Partnering with Earth: The Incarnation of a Soul

This textbook is an edited transcript of a live online class presented by the Lorian Association. The objective of this book is that at the end, you will have an expanded and empowered view of yourself, of who you are as an incarnate person. To do this, this textbook examines both a set of ideas on the processes of incarnation and the application of those ideas into everyday life. This book further elucidates David Spangler's Incarnational Spirituality and has philosophical and cosmological components, but its ultimate intent is a practical one. The benefits will come from applying this wealth of information into your everyday life.
