

The best, worst, and most unusual--horror films

Has it all--from the merely creepy to the truly fresh-crawling; from the riveting to the ridiculous; from the present danger to the terror of the unknown--fun films leap out at you from every page. Horror films are the most daring, most interesting, and most exciting type of film being made today. The unpredictable thrill lurks behind every frame. We never know exactly when the monster is going to poke his head through the wall. This review of the scariest and craziest is just as unpredictable: surprising you at every turn with an obscure masterpiece or an odd bit of trivia about your favorite classic. Darrell Moore not only singles out the best of classic horror but also takes you to oft-neglected crypts containing some of the strangest and most excruciatingly bad horror films ever to rise out of the ground! You'll be shocked and delighted with every turn of the page!

Located on a 160 x 25 site near the south entrance of Newburyports Clipper City Rail Trail, the Alchemical Garden is a richly layered evolving art and horticulture experience that is accessible on many different levels to the public. Alchemical Garden Plot plan Alchemical Garden is designed to become a model for a sustainable, interactive public garden through the use of symbiotic, low maintenance plantings and recycled materials. The ancient discipline of Alchemy marries art and science and is famously known for transforming a common material into gold. The Alchemical Garden will lead the community to transform on a number of levels : Alchemical Garden with Spring Wheat "Crop Circles" June, 2011 BUILD COMMUNITY: The Garden creates a gathering space for individuals to form a more intimate relationship with their community. The space is designed with visual features and seating areas to compel passers-by to pause, reflect, and have a multi-sensory interactive experience (sight, smell, touch, taste, smell) with the garden and the community.
