

The Return of the Perennial Philosophy: The Supreme Vision of Western Esotericism

John Holman contends that the perennial philosophy can be found at the heart of more than just the world's religions, is to be found in all the great schools of thought, and writings of the greatest thinkers and philosophers, no matter how apparently diverse the presentation of their perceived truths. This accessible but thought-provoking book allows us to develop an understanding that the nature of reality and our potential for transcendence are at the core of all belief systems. Revolutionizing the debate on the perennial philosophy and shedding light on a number of enigmatic esoteric topics The Return on the Perennial Philosophy will provide a crucial and rewarding spiritual context for modern times.

Located on a 160 x 25 site near the south entrance of Newburyport's Clipper City Rail Trail, the Alchemical Garden is a richly layered evolving art and horticulture experience that is accessible on many different levels to the public. Alchemical Garden Plot plan Alchemical Garden is designed to become a model for a sustainable, interactive public garden through the use of symbiotic, low maintenance plantings and recycled materials. The ancient discipline of Alchemy marries art and science and is famously known for transforming a common material into gold. The Alchemical Garden will lead the community to transform on a number of levels : Alchemical Garden with Spring Wheat "Crop Circles" June, 2011 BUILD COMMUNITY: The Garden creates a gathering space for individuals to form a more intimate relationship with their community. The space is designed with visual features and seating areas to compel passers-by to pause, reflect, and have a multi-sensory interactive experience (sight, smell, touch, taste, smell) with the garden and the community.
