What are your instincts? Are you following them or are you living life entirely in your own head? For centuries men and women have been guided by their gut feelings, by their intuition, and by that universal animal that is inside all of us. Thousands of Years of evolution has only made this sixth sense stronger, but the modern man has been so distracted by his mind, that he has forgotten his primal powers. The Instinctivist (via Instinctivism) allows us to tap into this power, it allows us to absorb and use our universal energy to think, act and live life to the fullest. This book is for everyone and every being...its for the Instinctivist inside all of us.
