Darla, the subject of this writing, personally takes you step by step through the inexplicable labyrinth that created who she was to become. The inevitable tailwind of emotional and sometimes mental abuse becomes the driving force that catapults its victims into a relentless journey seeking their true self, acceptance and most importantly validation. She, like many others, sought these ends in anything and everything she encountered from astrology and the occult, alcohol and drugs, sex and rebellion to religion, adamantly, relentlessly, seeking answers, looking for herself. With each encounter, filled with hope, she dove into subject with a vengeance. While she learned much about herself and others, each road she took only seemed to add to that heavy burden she carried with her always. Having a basic foundation of pain and anger, it wasn't difficult to continue to build that into a fortress all of her own, and thereby making her isolation almost impenetrable and making it indeed, a long journey, a long way to go.
