The year is 2009, and Albuquerque, New Mexico, has suddenly and unexpectedly been blown off the map, so to speak, by an unknown enemy. Two teenagers, Fran and Compton, witness the horrific sight and run for the nearest mountain to find shelter from the shocking and horrific bombings. Discovering ways to stay alive will be no easy task for them, but finding a group of their friends who have also found shelter in the vast mountain makes it somewhat easier for them to survive. Life for all of the teens has changed forever as they realize the end is near and they are part of a battle one much larger than anything they have ever imagined.

Located on a 160 x 25 site near the south entrance of Newburyport's Clipper City Rail Trail, the Alchemical Garden is a richly layered evolving art and horticulture experience that is accessible on many different levels to the public. Alchemical Garden Plot plan Alchemical Garden is designed to become a model for a sustainable, interactive public garden through the use of symbiotic, low maintenance plantings and recycled materials. The ancient discipline of Alchemy marries art and science and is famously known for transforming a common material into gold. The Alchemical Garden will lead the community to transform on a number of levels : Alchemical Garden with Spring Wheat "Crop Circles" June, 2011 BUILD COMMUNITY: The Garden creates a gathering space for individuals to form a more intimate relationship with their community. The space is designed with visual features and seating areas to compel passers-by to pause, reflect, and have a multi-sensory interactive experience (sight, smell, touch, taste, smell) with the garden and the community.
