This guide to Scotland shows readers how to discover the whole Scottish experience on two feet, including city strolls, coastal ambles and mountain hikes. It explores Scotlands flora and fauna as well as the myths and mysteries, the castles and crags and the malts en route.

Green Artists League GALvanizing Eco-Responsibility via RSS HOME ABOUT ALCHEMICAL GARDEN DOCUMENTS Help Cultivate The Alchemical Garden: An Edible Garden and Art Park at Newburyport's Rail Trail Portal by on April 27, 2011 3 comments The Alchemical Garden site February 2010 GAL is turning a desolate field of weeds into a visually compelling garden that will educate and engage the community for years to come. Located on a 160 x 25 site near the south end of Newburyports Clipper City Rail Trail, the Alchemical Garden is a richly layered evolving art and horticultural experience that is accessible on many different levels to the public. Alchemical Garden Plot plan Alchemical Garden is designed to become a model for a sustainable, interactive public garden through the use of native low maintenance plantings and recycled materials. The ancient discipline of Alchemy marries art and science and is famously known for transforming a common material into gold. The Alchemical Garden will lead the community to transform on a number of levels : Alchemical Garden with Spring Wheat "Crop Circles" June, 2011 BUILD COMMUNITY: The Garden creates a gathering space for individuals to form a more intimate relationship with their community. The space is designed with visual features and seating areas to compel passers-by to pause, reflect, and have a multi-sensory interactive experience ( sight, smell, touch, taste, smell) with the garden and the community.
